APPEAL

FOR PRESIDENT,

BENJAMIN HARRISON

FOF INDIANA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

LEVI P. MORTON OF NEW YORK.

GENERAL HARRISON AND THE CHINESE.

Senator Stewart has looked up General Harrison's Senatorial record on the Chinese question, and after going through the whole thing declares that it will be satisfactory to the Pacific Coast States. And so it will, for Senator Stewart shows that General Harrison was in accord with the sentiment that obtained among the vast majority of statesmen of the nation at the time. He voted with the Republicans, says Senator Stewart, against the restric. tion bill first proposed on the ground that it was in conflict with our treaty compacts with China. In this it is clear he was actuated solely by his conviction as a lawyer, for when it came to the bill of Senator Fair, identical with that of Representative Morrow, and the treaty relations having been modified, he voted for the restriction, being convinced that it was wise policy to do so, and for the best interests of American labor and the whole Republic, That bill was the most radical exclusion bill ever introduced and passed in either House, and had the approval of the California delegation to a man. It passed the Senate in June, 1886. and was sent to the House and referred to Mr. Belmont's Committee (Democratic), where it was choked to death on the ground that it was too radical and that the Administration was negotiating a new treaty, under which proper legislation could he bad. Senator Stewart avers that General Harrison voted for the bill in sincerity, and that he is today as firmly and uncompromisingly opposed to Chinese unrestricted immigration as the most pronounced opponent of it in California.

Referring to the fact that as light was shed on the Chinese question opinions underwent change, Senator Stewart recalls the time when in California public sentiment was favorable to Chinese admission without qualification. Not only that, they were invited to come, and the Democrats of California had a plan for bringing them over in large numbers to work upon overflowed lands. It will be remembered that in the early period, the Chinese were invited in San Francisco, and did participate in local celebrations and appeared in American processions. As late as 1868 a Demoeratic Governor sat at a public banquet in San Francisco, welcoming Chinese representatives, and not a word of antagonism to the coming of any of the people of the Chinese empire. Certainly, opinions have changed regarding the Chinese, and this is not the day and hour, nor will it ever come, to arraign men of the East for entertaining views adverse to Chinese restriction at a time when the reasons for checking the influx of Chinese laborers were not understood. General Harrison's position apon the question and his record is more satisfactory upon it than are those of the East who were foremost at the time the General was in public life. The Democracy cannot make capital out of this question. If it continues to assail General Harrison upon it, it will be confronted with its own record and that of its leading men of a few years ago and be called upon to explain.

A Commendable Act.

Levi P. Morton, Republican candidate for Vice-President, who is 64 years of age, is credited with one act of generosity which is something unusual in the career of a man of wealth. In 1854, when but 30 years old, he went to New York and established the dry goods firm of Morton & Grinnell. The house failed and settled with its creditors for 50 cents on the dollar. In 1863, after his bank had prospered greatly, he invited his creditors to dinner, and when the guests sat down at the table each one found beneath his plate a certified check for his claim and the accrued interest.

Joke on Hunting on.

There is a good story going the rounds about C. P. Buntington. When Mr. and Mrs. Huntington were in the city Mr. Huntington would not let his wife keep a carriage. He told her that people who were quite as good as she rode on the street cars, and that he did not care for her "to put on style," as Senator Stanford and Crocker put on all the style for the Southern Pacific. Mrs. Huntington, who is as quickwitted as her husband, and possibly more witty in explaining away this, would say:

"Now, my dear Mrs. Jones, my husband is so mean that he will not let me keep a carriage. Now, can you guess the reason?"

"I am sure I cannot," would be

"Well, you see he has one-fourth interest in the Market street cable system, and he forces me to ride in them so that he can get his onefourth of my five cents."

The powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or prospete rowders Sold only in case Reval. Baring Powders, 106 Wall St. N. Y.
